

Team Canada launches!

Posted by kcross - 2009/11/10 12:15

Over 50 excited people are taking part in the news monitoring in Canada - many of them university students working with their professors at Simon Fraser University in Vancouver, McMaster University, University of Windsor and Wilfred Laurier University. We also have monitors in the province of Quebec for both English and French news.

I encourage all of the Canadian monitors to post about their experiences as we go! Good luck everyone!

100% Stitched(not printed) Jersey. This Mitchell And Ness Chicago Bears NFL Jersey is crafted just like Authentic jerseys. It features durable, quick-drying fabric slightly heavier than replica jerseys, flexible and comfortable fabric on neckline, cuff and underarm parts and double thick cloth on shoulders. All graphics are sewn-on. The jersey is designed with the team name Stitched below the v-neck collar and the player's number triple Stitched on the chest, back and shoulders Clay Matthews Jersey,Jim McMahon Jersey,Miles Austin Jersey, Tom Brady Jersey. The player's name is Stitched on a sewn down nameplate at the upper back, and NFL? Equipment patch is sewn on to the bottom of the front collar, Reebok? logo Stitched on each sleeve.
